| Salary | 25-29k |

Job Purpose

The GB Rowing Team's aim is to create an Olympic Pathway that is open, accessible and clear, so that any individual who has the potential to row for Great Britain can achieve their ambitions. The post-holder will play a key role within that Pathway, supporting the Performance Development Coach to identify, recruit, and develop new athletes with future Olympic potential who might not otherwise enter the sport of rowing or excel within a traditional 'mainstream' rowing pathway. In particular the post-holder will act as the link between the Regional GB Performance Development Academy, and the wider region, supporting identified 'satellite' athletes and their coaches in clubs, supporting regional coach development, and engaging with Youth Rowing Outreach programmes to create opportunities for talent to be developed from groups who wouldn't otherwise engage in the sport of rowing.

Key Responsibilities

- Working closely with the Performance Development Coach to identify new rowers with clear potential to perform on the Olympic pathway via local and/or national Talent Identification testing.
- Establishing and maintaining contact with relevant local partner organisations that can assist in finding talent, particularly through creating links with Youth Rowing Programmes and other organisations to engage potential talent from groups who wouldn't otherwise engage with or have access to the sport of rowing. This may include occasionally supporting sessions with those organisations in order to develop those links.
- Supporting the Performance Development Coach with coaching and developing rowers, in particular providing assistance with training at the Regional Performance Development Academy and covering sessions where required.
- Working with the England Talent Manager to run wider regional activity which supports the development of potential rowers, for example the Womens and Student Development programmes.

- Running regional camps and other activities associated with the above.
- Identify ‘satellite’ athletes based within the region, and support those athletes, their coaches and clubs to enable the athlete to develop within their own club environment.
- Facilitating opportunities for those satellite athletes to develop further, for example via training sessions at the Regional Performance Development Academy, attendance at national camps and organising crew boat opportunities where appropriate.
- To ensure all activities include adequate safeguarding risk control measures
- Supporting the Learning, Education and Development (LEAD) team to run activities to develop coaches, including regional workshops, coach mentoring and organising regional coaching networks.
- Ensure compliance with data protection, safeguarding and health and safety guidelines.
- Supporting the Community team by providing insight around where their support may be best targeted within the region.
- Representing British Rowing publicly as necessary, including at Coaching Conferences.

This job description is not to be regarded as exclusive or exhaustive. It is intended as an outline indication of the areas of activity and will be amended in the light of the changing needs of the organisation.
