A bit about the role

The Masters Championships is one of the largest regattas in the rowing calendar with over 900 crews taking part in recent years. It is held over 2 days in the middle of June (13th-14th in 2026).

The Championship aims to provide racing for the best Masters crews (age 27+) in the county in all boat classes as well as provide a pathway for rowers who have taken up the sport in later years.

This is an opportunity to gain some hands-on experience in the fields of sporting events organisation in the run up to and during the British Rowing Masters Championships.

Responsibilities

The successful application will work with the BRMC Organising Committee made up of a mixture of volunteers and British Rowing staff and take a lead in the recruitment and coordination of volunteers during the Championships. Responsibilities will include:

Pre-Event Responsibilities:

- gather headcount requirements for each area of the event
- support the British Rowing Events team with recruitment
- Scheduling and rostering of volunteers, in conjunction with other Committee members

Event Responsibilities:

- Volunteer welfare (i.e. catering)
- Coordinating on-the-day briefings, in conjunction with other Committee members
- Ensuring areas are suitably covered

A bit about you

No formal qualifications are required however applicants should have a practical approach, excellent communication skills and a belief in the positive impact of sport.

The Organising Committee welcome all applications.

Additional Information

Although this is a voluntary role, reasonable expenses will be paid as per the British Rowing expenses policy, and accommodation provided during the event. The successful candidate must be available for the weekend of the Championships.

Equal Opportunities

British Rowing is committed to equal opportunities for all and applications from individuals are encouraged regardless of age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief and marriage and civil partnerships.

How to apply

Please send a 1-page letter explaining your interest and suitability to James Lee, British Rowing's Events Manager at james.lee@britishrowing.org by Monday 26th January 2026.
