

British Rowing Club Championships

17-20 July 2026

British Rowing was pleased to see the growth of the Club Championships in 2025 including a 31.2% increase in entries for senior events. As the combined Championships continue to embed into the national calendar, there are no significant changes planned to the event offering or schedule for 2026. Following discussion with the 2025 entrants, and the adaptive community, all adaptive events will be raced over 2,000m, on Sunday.

Eligibility Criteria

- Composite crews are not eligible for Club or Beginner events.
- Beginner events are only open to athletes who have taken up classic rowing on the water (regardless of discipline) after 1 June of the preceding year.
- Senior crews/scullers must enter Championship if they contain any members (excluding the cox) who are current GB squad athletes (senior or age-group), funded athletes, or athletes who have competed (regardless of discipline) since 1 April 2023 at any of the following:
 - The Olympic and Paralympic regattas
 - The World Rowing Championships
 - A World Rowing Cup regatta
 - The World Rowing Under 23 Championships
 - The World Rowing Junior/Under 19 Championships
 - The Oxford-Cambridge University Boat Races (Blue or Reserve races but not Lightweight)
 - A semi-final at Henley Royal Regatta in any event (including junior events)
 - A final of a Championship event at Henley Women's Regatta
 - A Championship event at BUCS Regatta and finished in the top three.
- The Championship organisers may, in exceptional circumstances, notify a club that an entry will not be accepted in certain events if they consider such an entry to be inappropriate
